

Giving society members come from different backgrounds and different walks of life. They include longtime residents and those newer to the region. But all are united in their desire to invest in the future of North Texas.

Join other leaders committed to transforming our community. Each giving society level provides members with access to events, exciting networking activities and rewarding volunteer opportunities. There's a United Way giving society that's right for you.

We are pleased to recognize annual donors, both in the workplace and beyond, through membership in the following giving societies.
